If you request an in-person hearing, you will receive an email indicating the date, time and place of your hearing. It is Park Plymouth's intent to render a decision on all appeals within 60 days of their receipt. A penalty will not be imposed during the time period you are waiting for a decision on your appeal. However, if the appeal is denied you will have 21 calendar days from the date of the decision to pay the ticket before the applicable penalty will be added to it.
